

Parazilin

Protection in parasitic infection hazard

Parazilin is a concentrate of herbs and herbal active substances supporting and reinforcing the protective capacities of the gastrointestinal tract. The ALL IN technology and the unique BioPoint formula provide a high level of protection during periods of high risk of gastrointestinal disorders caused by parasitic factors.

Composition: Composition of flavourings, glycerine, propylene glycol, emulsifier: glyceryl polyethyleneglycol ricinoleate.

Indications: the formula is intended for each production type or group of poultry, in case of:

- gastrointestinal disorder hazard of parasitic origin

Dosage: 500 ml/1000 l of drinking water, 24h daily for 5-7 days

Package: 5L